EDISTO ISLAND OPEN LAND TRUST

... TO PRESERVE AND PROTECT THE SCENIC VIEWS AND NATURAL RESOURCES OF EDISTO ISLAND

SPRING 2006

TWO NEW PROPERTIES PROTECTED BY EIOLT

Easement on Peters Point Road Island

Monsignor James A. Carter, P.A., Pastor at Mt. Pleasant's Christ our King Church, used to visit Edisto frequently when his aunt, Dr. Patricia Carte would reside at her island home just off Peters Point Road. Dr. Carter was a member and supporter of the Edisto Island Open Land Trust, and when she died in 2004, she left the property to her nephew. Jim Carter loves spending quiet days here surrounded by the beauty of Shell House Creek and a vast panorama of uninterrupted marsh. To preserve these scenic views, he recently donated a conservation easement on this 4.5 acre property to the EIOLT. This conservation easement was written to fulfill the owner's wishes that there be no additional structures or docks on this land, and the EIOLT is delighted to be entrusted with the stewardship of this property with its magnificent views. Thanks to conservation-minded property owners like Jim Carter, we are saving Edisto's natural landscape, one scenic property at a time.

Easement on Scenic Toogoodoo Creek Property

The Edisto Island Open Land Trust was delighted to accept this easement from a conservation-committed young married couple, Tom Hutto and Barbara Neale. They are a typical two-career couple who have too little time to spend at home on a beautiful tract overlooking Toogoodoo Creek, just across the Dawho River from Edisto. What makes Barbara and Tom different is their love of the land and the surrounding area. Over a year ago they created a partnership with friends to purchase a large wooded area adjacent to their homes, because they were worried that otherwise, it would be densely developed in a manner out of character with the area. Since then the property has been divided among the partners, and Tom and Barbara have donated

Pending Tax Law Changes Could Benefit Landowners

After a year's delay, Congress is once again considering the long-awaited tax law enhancements for landowners who donate conservation easements to land trusts.

Currently Federal tax law allows a donor to utilize the value of his conservation easement by deducting from his federal income tax up to 30% of adjusted gross income each year for the year of the donation and for five years thereafter. Last November, the US Senate passed a tax bill with an expansion of the Federal tax incentives for conservation easement donors, and with reforms designed to prevent abusive appraisals. The Senate bill raised the cap on tax deductions from 30% of the donor's adjusted gross income to 50% - and to 100% for farmers and ranchers who donate easements on their farmland! The bill also provided for extending the carry-forward period for using these tax deductions from 5 to 15 years. The House subsequently passed a companion bill which did not include these increased tax incentives, leaving the ultimate fate of conservation donors to be decided by a Joint House-Senate Conference Committee. This Committee will try to resolve the differences between the House and Senate tax bills.

FROM THE DIRECTOR

When you think about the future, do you ever picture what Edisto Island will look like in the year 2020? We know there will be some changes, but will it still be a rural island community? Will it still have plenty of open space, woods, and marsh views filled with songbirds, wading and sea birds and other critters? Will unpolluted creeks and rivers still teem with crabs, shrimp, oysters, and fish? Or will Edisto have succumbed to typical sprawl, like the wall to wall condos, strip malls, commercial establishments and parking lots on James Island, Johns Island, and Mt. Pleasant. We cannot let this happen here . . . and we must not leave it to chance. That's why your Land Trust is launching a project to create a 5-Year Strategic Plan and 10-Year Vision to serve as a guide for preserving the quality of life on Edisto through land preservation.

The EIOLT Strategic Planning Task Force – a distinguished group of volunteers and EIOLT board members – will start work at the end of March and will be in touch with EIOLT members and other community stakeholders to ask for your ideas and your vision of Edisto's future. Driving down Highway 174, what would you like to see? What areas do you consider a priority for preservation? What role do you want your land trust to fulfill in the Edisto community? Feedback from interviews or surveys with stakeholders will be compiled and presented to the EIOLT Board, who will convene for an all-day meeting on September 22 to draft the 2006-2010 Strategic Plan.

To accelerate land protection on Edisto we need your input, so if you hear from the EIOLT Strategic Planning Task Force, please take the time to give them your feedback. No one else is going to save our island but us! The future of Edisto is in your hands.

New EIOLT Board Members Elected

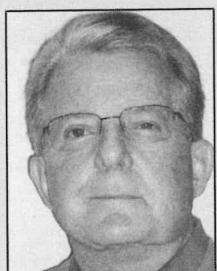

We are pleased to welcome two new members of our Board of Trustees, elected for three-year terms.

Nancy M. Sandel

Nancy grew up in Columbia, where she served as an elected member of the Richland County Council for 4 years, has managed the political campaigns of several candidates, and has served on a number of boards. She and her husband, Tommy, live at Edisto Beach and have two children – Gayle S. Pedersen and Philip Sandel, and two grandchildren, Elizabeth and James. Tom and Nancy are Commodore and First Mate, respectively, of the Edisto Island Yacht Club. When not working, they enjoy fishing, crabbing, boating, gardening and spending time with their grandchildren.

Richard L. Brown, III (Lane)

Lane Brown is a native of North Carolina, who graduated from UNC at Chapel Hill and got his law degree from Harvard Law School. He served three terms as a member of the House of Representatives in the NC legislature, and is a retired tax attorney. Lane has served on numerous boards of universities, non-profits and foundations. He and his wife, Vicki, moved to the Charleston area, settling first at Kiawah in 1998, and now live on Daniel Island. Lane has four children – Berit B. Williams, Sara A. Brown, Kirk W. Brown, and Taylor L. B. Browne.

UPCOMING EVENTS

YOUR LAND TRUST WANTS YOU to come to the EIOLT Ambassadors' Orientation on April 19!

If you are looking for an interesting volunteer project, look no further. The EIOLT offers a diversity of stimulating projects for your talents and experience; for example: Bess Kellett and Mark Crawford are helping survey EIOLT conservation easement lands, Lynn Bagnal is helping with events planning, and Paul Fripp helps erect signage. Las we had the most successful fundraising event ever, thanks to the help of 50+ volunteers. Volunteers' time spent on EIOLT project translates into more dollars for land preservation. The volunteers who are actively involved in 2006 projects are listed in the "2006 EIOLT Committees" column.

If you have volunteered in the past or would like to get involved, don't miss EIOLT's Ambassadors Orientation on Wednesday, April 19 at the Edisto Island Yacht Club. The orientation starts at 3:00 p.m. and wraps up at 4:30, at which time refreshments will be served. Please call the EIOLT office (843-869-9004) if you would like to attend the Ambassador's Orientation, or if you would like more information about becoming a volunteer. There is no charge for the Orientation.

~ Legacy Live Oak Dedication on May 21 ~

On Sunday, May 21, our annual Legacy Live Oak Dedication will be held at the Sand Creek Memorial site from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. Everyone is invited, and there is no charge. We will honor the following individuals whose names have been added to our Legacy Live Oak Monument and for whom Phase IV Legacy Live Oak trees have recently been planted, as well as all past honorees.*

In honor of Dr. Jack & Cherry Allen

In memory of Edward Bailey

In memory of Jeffrey Scott Fripp

In memory of Ernest David Gibbons

In honor of William S. Goode

In memory of Sara Harrigal

In memory of Nancy Fewell Herrin

In honor of Be & Jameely Moore

In memory of Louise R. Nichols Moore

At the May 21 dedication, there will be a special tribute to two men and one woman in whose memory Legacy Live Oaks have been planted. They are Jeffrey Scott Fripp, Ernest David Gibbons, and Nancy Fewell Herrin. Their families listed EIOLT as a beneficiary of memorials in the obituary, and there has been an extraordinary outpouring of memorial donations for these individuals. We extend our sympathy to all the families who have lost loved ones recently, and we thank all who have donated Legacy Live Oaks.

*To view a complete listing of all the Legacy Live Oak honorees and their donors, please visit the EIOLT website at www.edisto.org and click on "Legacy Live Oak Honorees."

"Back to Nature Tours" on June 3

On Saturday, June 3, join the Edisto Island Open Land Trust for a "Back to Nature on Edisto" day. This event will feature a variety of nature and bird watching tours with South Carolina's best naturalists:

- Rudy Manke, star of ETV's "Nature Scene," and Distinguished Lecturer of Natural History at USC's College of the Environment – Rudy will lead morning and afternoon "tours of discovery" on Edisto Beach.
- Rowland Alston, star of ETV's "Making It Grow," and Clemson Extension agent – Rowland will give a "primer on plants that thrive in coastal areas" at Main's Market on Edisto.
- Sidney Gauthreaux, well-known ornithologist and natural history professor at Clemson University – Sid will lead morning and afternoon bird watching tours on Edisto.
- Richard Porcher, published author of "Wildflowers of the Lowcountry," and other books and professor of biology at the Citadel – Richard will lead morning and afternoon "naturalist tours of wooded areas" on Edisto Island.

To purchase tickets for any of these tours, or if your business would like to become a Sponsor for this highly-publicized event, please call the EIOLT office at 843-869-9004. Call today – space on tours is limited and

Edisto Beach Homes Tour EIOLT Fall Event on November 11

Edisto Beach is an important part of Edisto Island – it has a special family ambiance that this community fiercely protects. The visitor is taken back to a time when there was absolutely nothing to do at the beach except take long sea-shelling walks, curl up on a chair with a good book, or play cards.

The EIOLT plans to celebrate this unique family-oriented beach community on Saturday, November 11, with an Edisto Beach Homes Tour and Wine Tasting. The proceeds from this fundraising event will go directly into preserving open spaces on Edisto Island. We are pleased to announce that our Key Sponsor for the Edisto Beach Homes Tour will be Coldwell Banker Sea Island Realty, who also was a sponsor of our 2005 fall event. If your business is interested in becoming a "Beach Homes Tour" sponsor, please call the land trust office at 843-869-9004 today. There will be extensive publicity for this event throughout the region, and as a sponsor, your

FOR SALE TO CONSERVATION BUYER

EIOLT is soliciting offers for a 24-acre tract of highland with open fields bordered by woodlands and located on Highway 174. The land was purchased by EIOLT to prevent inappropriate development and is ideal for a horse farm, for horticulture or preserved as a wildlife habitat. EIOLT will review and consider all offers in excess of $429,000. EIOLT is seeking conservation buyers and reserves the right to reject any offer at its discretion. Inquiries should be directed to Edisto Sales & Rentals Realty (843-869-2527).

Herrin Family Honors Mother with Legacy Live Oak

A Legacy Live Oak was planted in March, 2006, to honor the memory of Nancy Fewell Herrin, mother of Eugenia Herrin Hamlett, Kent Erickson Herrin, and Benjamin Scott Herrin. Members of the Herrin Family have been a part of the Edisto Island Open Land Trust since 1995, and Edisto was one of Mrs. Herrin's favorite places. The EIOLT wishes to thank those who paid tribute to Mrs. Herrin with memorial donations to the Edisto Island Open Land Trust.

Enterprise Bank who attended. He also thanked the New First Baptist Church Men's Choir and the International Birds of Prey for donating the entertainment, Jim Kempson, who donated the beverages for the event, and all the individuals who worked to make the day a success. Marian Brailsford recognized recent conservation easement donors – Tom Hutto, Barbara Neale, and James Carter – and wrapped up the business announcements with a request for donations to the Revolving Acquisition Fund. She said, "The purpose of the acquisition fund is to purchase land that otherwise would be developed, re-sell it with restrictions in place, and roll the acquisition fund over time and again to save other endangered land on Edisto."

It's hard to beat an early spring oyster roast with blue skies reflecting in a lazy tidal creek and a balmy breeze keeping the insects at bay. That's what 350 Edisto Island Open Land Trust members and supporters experienced at EIOLT's Annual Meeting & Oyster Roast on Sunday, March 5, where they gathered around tables piled high with the best of Lowcountry fare. They were entertained by gospel music from the New First Baptist Church Men's Choir, followed by demonstrations of raptors by the International Birds of Prey Center.

This year the oyster roast took place on Edisto's Sand Creek Farm, hosted by owner and EIOLT Board Member, Lex Crawford. EIOLT President, BoBo Lee thanked Enterprise Bank of SC, our Oyster Roast sponsor for the third year in a row, and recognized the large group from

Members Approve New By-Laws at Annual Meeting

At the March 5 Annual Meeting EIOLT members voted to approve the "First Amended By-Laws of the Edisto Island Open Land Trust, Inc." The vote was 187 "for" and 2 "against," and the new by-laws were certified by Lex Crawford, Secretary of the Board of Trustees, effective March 5, 2006. Changes made to the By-Laws include:

- Number of EIOLT Board members increased from 15 to 21, each serving 3-year terms with consecutive terms allowed.
- Voting – The Board of Directors will have the ability to manage the increasingly complex operation of the organization without the requirement for member voting.
- Supermajority voting – Two-thirds of all EIOLT Board members must vote to approve any motion to: buy/sell land, borrow money, accept easements, change the by-laws, dissolve, or hire/terminate staff.
